All transcripts contained herein have been proofread and approved by the International Public Relations Committee. The approval process involved the transcript and the tape recording being sent to the International Public Relations Committee. The Committee in turn compared the written transcript to the audio recording to ensure that the transcript is an accurate reflection of the recording. Our thanks therefore are imparted to Lamar Greer as head of the International Public Relations Committee for his time, effort, and cooperation in the production of this publication.

Our utmost gratitude go to Dolores Jamieson, Alyshia Bradford, Gaynail Carter who so diligently proofread the transcripts. With their persistence in critically comparing the written transcript to the audio recording, a faithful rendition of the spiritual sessions and discussions are herein contained.

Our thanks are extended to those who recorded these lectures, those who transferred the recording from a reel tape to an audio cassette tape, and also those who willingly shared their recordings with others: Fred Allen Jr., Dr. Carl F. Gross, Lamar Greer, Kenneth Haverly, Eugene Hodoh, Edna Law, Burbank Mitchell, Greg Prestis, David Rosen and Geraldine Rothstein.

Our appreciation also goes to Gary Miller, who when asked would immediately boost a tape recording to listening level if needed.
